1. European Union Agency for Asylum

The European Union Agency for Asylum (hereinafter "EUAA"), established by Regulation (EU) 2021/2303¹, is a centre of expertise by virtue of its independence, the scientific and technical quality of the assistance it provides and the information it collects and disseminates, the transparency of its operating procedures and methods, its diligence in performing the tasks assigned to it, and the information technology support needed to fulfil its mandate.

Specifically, the EUAA focuses on:

- Contributing to ensuring the efficient and uniform application of Union law on asylum in the Member States in a manner that fully respects fundamental rights.
- Facilitating and supporting the activities of the Member States in the implementation of the Common European Asylum System (CEAS), including by enabling convergence in the assessment of applications for international protection across the Union and by coordinating and strengthening practical cooperation and information exchange.
- Improving the functioning of the CEAS, including through a monitoring mechanism² and by providing operational and technical assistance to Member States, in particular where their asylum and reception systems are under disproportionate pressure.

The organisational chart of the Agency can be consulted on the EUAA's website at: <https://euaa.europa.eu/about-us/who-we-are>

The Agency's headquarters are located in Malta with additional offices in Belgium, Italy, Greece, Spain, and Cyprus.

² Applicable legal provisions enter into force on 31 December 2023.

2. Job description

The Head of Corporate and Security Unit (CSU) will manage and coordinate the work and resources of the Unit, will enhance the security management within the Agency and adapt it to the security and cybersecurity regulations of the EU Commission. The jobholder will report to the Deputy Executive Director (DED) and will be responsible for the following tasks:

1. Lead and manage the Corporate Security Unit and advise the DED on all security matters;
2. Develop and implement the organisation's security policy and a comprehensive organisational security strategy in line with applicable EU rules and regulations, best practices and the organisation's needs;
3. Perform the functions of a Local Security Officer (LSO), as defined in COMMISSION DECISION (EU, Euratom) 2015/443 of 13 March 2015 on Security in the Commission, and COMMISSION DECISION (EU, Euratom) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015 on the security rules for protecting EU Classified Information (EUCI);
4. Oversee and coordinate, in close cooperation with ICTU, the design, operation, and evolution of the Agency's cybersecurity;
5. Identify and implement all measures necessary to provide a secure environment including protection of information, security of premises and staff against potential threats;
6. Develop, implement, and operate a functional system for crisis management and response for the EUAA;
7. Ensure staff compliance with mission security awareness and preparedness;
8. Establish and steer, in close coordination with relevant EUIBA and other EUAA centres and actors, a system of regular staff training in security matters;
9. Oversee and ensure the functioning of a comprehensive framework to process sensitive and classified information up to and including RESTREINT UE/EU RESTRICTED;
10. Contribute to necessary technical applications and tools in close cooperation with, among others, Digital Innovation Coordinator, ICTU, and DPO;
11. Develop and implement, in close coordination with relevant actors inside and outside the agency, a system to process EUCI up to and including SECRET UE/EU SECRET;
12. Implement, in accordance with COM-level regulations, a framework of EUAA positions requiring personal security clearances;

13. Organise the necessary security vettings and, in cooperation with COM and national entities, provide security clearances for staff with special security requirements;
14. Liaise with the European Union Institution's security structures as well as with Member States' and host countries' local and regional security authorities and intelligence services;
15. Initiate and organize periodic security assessments in close cooperation with EU Agencies, analysing security factors and levels of risk related to EUAA activities and programs;
16. Implement, monitor and evaluate appropriate security measures in field operations and third countries' activities;
17. Perform any other task, in the interest of the service, as required by the Deputy Executive Director.

3. Requirements

A) Eligibility Criteria

Candidates will be considered eligible for selection based on the fulfilment of the following formal criteria, by the deadline for applications:

1. Have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least 4 years attested by a diploma and, after having obtained the university diploma, at least 12 years of appropriate professional experience, or satisfactory knowledge (level B2 in all dimensions as per the CEFRL) of another one of these languages to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties pertaining to the post⁴;

6. Meet the character requirements for the duties involved⁵;
7. Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post⁶.

B) Selection Criteria

If the eligibility criteria set out in section A) Eligibility criteria are met, the candidates' applications will be evaluated on the following selection criteria. These criteria have been subdivided into two categories: Essential and Advantageous Selection Criteria.

Please note that all Essential criteria are mandatory, meaning that no application will be assessed further if a candidate obtains a zero score in any of the Essential Criteria.

The most suitable candidates with the highest overall scores will be invited to an interview.

Essential

1. Professional experience of at least five years with tasks and roles closely related to section '2. Job description';
2. Professional experience of at least two years as a manager;
3. Very good understanding of applicable standards in security management, such as ISO27001, ISO22301 or similar;
4. Professional experience in the management of security programs and in giving advice to senior managers on security measures in an EU and/or international context.

Advantageous

1. Professional experience within an international and multi-cultural environment, preferably in European Institutions, Agencies or bodies;
2. University degree in Security Management, Business Administration, International Relations, Information Technology or another field relevant to the job description;
3. Knowledge of the EU institutional security and/or cybersecurity structure and functioning.

⁴ See <https://epso.europa.eu/en/selection-procedure/general-and-specific-eligibility-requirements>

⁵ Before the appointment, the successful candidate shall be asked to provide proof of a non-existent criminal record.

⁶ Before the appointment, the successful candidate shall be medically examined by one of the institutions' medical officers which will enable EUAA to ensure that he/she fulfils the requirement stated in Article 28(e) of the Staff Regulations of the Officials of the European Union.

C) Evaluation during interviewing process

Candidates invited to the interviewing process (interview and written test) will be assessed based on the essential and advantageous criteria described in this Section, and the following additional criteria relevant to the post:

1. Thorough written and spoken communication skills in English language, the working language of the EUAA;
2. Ability to use electronic office equipment and applications (word processing, spreadsheets, presentations, electronic communication, internet etc.);
3. Good communication and well-developed interpersonal skills;
4. Excellent planning and organizational skills and ability to prioritize work and deliver under pressure;
5. Ability to work as part of a team of managers;
6. Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills;
7. Ability to manage and coordinate a multidisciplinary team in a multicultural and multilingual environment;
8. Knowledge of the mission and organisation of the EUAA.

In addition, the successful candidate should act and abide by the EUAA's values and the EUAA Core Competencies.

4. Recruitment process

The Regulation which provides the legal basis for the EUAA was adopted on 15 December 2021 (Official Journal of the European Union L 468 of 30.12.2021).

A) Identifying eligible candidates

After the deadline for submission of applications, the Selection Committee will verify the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in Section 3A ("Eligibility Criteria"). Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the "Selection Criteria" under Section 3B.

B) Further analysis of applications

Following this initial assessment, the Selection Committee will compare the applications of eligible candidates with reference to:

- The Selection Criteria (“Essential” and “Advantageous”);
- The overall quality of the application and the candidates’ suitability for the post when compared to the established job profile.

Please note that the Essential Selection Criteria are mandatory, and no application will be further assessed if one of these criteria is not satisfied.

The Selection Committee will then establish a shortlist of the most suitable candidates to be invited for a written test, an interview, and/or other tests based on the order of merit. These assessments will be held in English and, where applicable, other languages.

Both shortlisted and not shortlisted candidates will be notified thereof.

C) Assessment phase

The assessment phase is composed of the following components:

- Technical competency written test and/or any other assessment deemed necessary for the post;
- Interview with the Selection Committee;
- Assessment centre;
- Interview with the Executive Director.

The assessment phase will be devised to evaluate the following components:

- General aptitude and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties in accordance with Article 12(2)(e) of the Conditions of Employment of other Servants of the European Union (CEOS);
- Specific competences with reference to the applicants' profiles in line with the selection criteria included in the Vacancy Notice;
- Hands-on management skills will be analysed in an Assessment Centre, which will include group and individual exercises and activities as well as in-depth interviews. These will be provided by an external provider.

Please note that only candidates who are successful in the interview and written test will have the possibility of being placed on the reserve list. These candidates will then be asked to attend an assessment centre and an additional interview with the Executive Director.

This selection procedure may be organised online. In such case, further information will be provided by the Agency to candidates invited for an interview regarding the practical modalities for the assessment.

D) Verification of supporting documents

Only candidates who receive an offer letter will be required to present originals or certified copies of the documents listed below to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application against their supporting documents:

- A document proving their citizenship (e.g., passport);
- Any academic qualification mentioned in the application;
- Any professional experience mentioned in the application.

E) Establishing a reserve list

A reserve list will be established based on the outcome of the assessment phase and will remain valid until the end of the current year from the date of its establishment.

The reserve list may be extended at the discretion of the Executive Director. The established reserve list may be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of EUAA.

Candidates shall note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. Recruitment will be based on availability of posts and budget.

Prior to taking up duties, the successful candidate will be asked to undergo a compulsory medical examination by one of the institutions' medical officers which will enable the EUAA to ensure that he/she fulfils the requirement stated in Article 28(e) of the Staff Regulations of the Officials of the European Union.

The selected candidate shall be required to undergo a vetting procedure executed by the National Security Authority of the applicant's state of citizenship in order to obtain a personnel security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post/position. Candidates who at the time of request hold a valid personnel security clearance at the required level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. The National Security Authority of the candidate shall provide the Agency with an opinion or a personnel security clearance in accordance with relevant national legislation. In case the selected candidate does not currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level, the EUAA will request such from the National Security Authority of the candidate's state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required personnel security clearance or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment, the Agency has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

5. Equal opportunities

The EUAA applies an equal opportunities policy and accepts applications without discriminating on the basis of gender, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, or sexual orientation.

6. Conditions of employment

The successful candidate(s) will be appointed by the Executive Director following the selection procedure and will be recruited as a Temporary Agent according to Article 2(f) of the CEOS for a period of 5 years, which may be renewed. The Temporary Agent will undergo an initial probation period of nine months.

The Temporary Agent post in question will be placed in group AD 10. The basic salary of a Temporary Agent, AD 10 (step 1) is EUR 11,408.03 which is weighted by the local correction coefficient (for Malta currently 92.4%). In addition to the basic salary, the EUAA offers various allowances and benefits depending on personal circumstances, such as:

- Family allowances;
- Expatriation or foreign residence allowance;
- Entry into service-related allowances (travel expenses, daily subsistence allowances, removal expenses, installation allowances);
- Annual travel allowances;
- Social benefits;
- Benefits stemming from Agreements with national Governments;
- Benefits stemming from Service Level Agreements with pre-schools and schools;
- Wide range of leave entitlements;
- Benefits to support work-life balance;
- Relocation services in Malta.

The salaries of Staff members are subject to a European Union tax deducted at source. Staff members are exempt from national tax on salary and are members of the European Union social security and pension scheme.

For further information on Conditions of Employment please refer to EUAA website section Work for EUAA and to Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union \(CEOS\).

The place of employment is Malta.

7. Application procedure

All of the EUAA's vacancies can be found on our Vacancies page and online e-Recruitment tool. For applications to be valid, candidates shall use the EUAA's online e-Recruitment tool to create a candidate account, activate it, and complete all sections of the application form, as detailed in the User Manual found on the landing page. Candidates are requested to complete their application in English.

Incomplete applications will be disqualified and treated as non-eligible.

Please note that the selection process may take several months. In order to facilitate the selection process, all correspondence to candidates concerning this vacancy will be in English.

Candidates should not approach, directly or indirectly, the Selection Committee under any circumstances in relation to this recruitment process. The Executive Director reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who disregards this instruction.

Closing date:

The closing date for the submission of applications is 25 September 2026 at 12:00 pm (noon - Malta time). The Agency will disregard any application received after this date and time.

Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the date of the deadline to submit their applications. The EUAA is not held responsible for any delays in submission of applications due to technical difficulties or any other factors that may arise.

If a candidate is found to have provided false information at any stage in the selection procedure, the Agency is within its capacity to disqualify the candidate in question.

8. Data protection

The purpose of processing of the data submitted by the candidate is to manage the application(s) of the candidate in view of a possible selection and recruitment at the EUAA.

The Agency does not make public the names of successful candidates on reserve lists. However, it is possible that, for the purposes of recruitment and related planning purposes, members of the Agency's management may have access to reserve lists and, in specific cases, to the application of a candidate.

The personal information requested will be processed in line with Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC. You may find more information on the processing of your personal data here: Data Protection Notice Recruitment for Temporary and Contract Staff.

9. Appeal procedures

Any person to whom the Staff Regulations and the CEOS apply may submit to the competent Authority Empowered to Conclude Contracts of Employment a complaint against an act affecting him/her adversely within 3 months, pursuant to Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations⁷ and under the conditions laid down therein. Complaints concerning this selection procedure may be lodged either by post or by e-mail using the following contact details:
